Conclusion

Thanks to the usage of unpublished documents, the work of schools between two wars was explained, and also many activities of this pedagogical and educational institution and the town itself. In addition to statistic information on pupils, many facts about their school and extracurricular activities were presented. Many documents showed the work of teachers, which was very significant. They were the leading members of all schools, humanitarian, national, military and state institutions and organizations in Svilajnac. They had an enormous and broad influence on Svilajnac.
